

Declaration of Concentration in Literary Translation

Name and email address: _____

T#: _____

Expected month and year of graduation: _____

The concentration requires 5 full courses distributed as follows. No course can count more than once.

	Department	Course title & number	Semester completed, actual or expected
Required Intro.	CMPL / CRWR	250 / Intro to Literary Translation
Two advanced courses in translation*
One advanced Language Course
Capstone or Honors project

*Two Advanced Courses in Translation chosen from:

- CRWR/CMPL 350 Advanced Translation Workshop
- CMPL/CRWR 351 Advanced Translation Workshop
- 300- or 400-level LxC courses when 50% or more of the graded assignments involve translation.
- 300-level Classics courses.

At least one course at the 400 level in a foreign literature taught in the original language (300 in Greek, Latin, Chinese, Japanese, or Korean).

1 Capstone (or Honors) project focusing on translation in any department. A faculty member with experience in translation should be first or second reader for the project.

Signatures and Dates

1) Student: _____

2) Member of the Committee for the Concentration: _____

Current members are: Stiliana Milkova, Claire Solomon, Kirk Ormand, Patrick O'Connor, Sebastiaan Faber, Tim Scholl, Hsiu-Chuang Deppman, Jed Deppman, Wendy Hyman

Please provide copies of this form to the registrar and your major advisor.